1 Old Business

1. Member Update

- Don Wilson wanted to attend tonight, but can't drive. Living back in the community he was previously in, but on the first floor now.

2. Treasury

- No change. $558

3. Nets

- 2 meter net - 6 or 7 people last week. One new person
- 75 meter net - Johnny said he's suspending for a while due to unlicensed participants

4. Field Day

- Last full weekend of June (28th – 29th)
- Dave suggested just using the Andover pickleball courts without explicit permission.
- Bob to check with Columbia pavilions
- Bring sandwich platters, chips, and other snack type foods

2 New Business

1. Member Update

- Don will probably not make it to field day.

2. Treasury

- $558 in the Treasury
- Insurance due at the end of summer ~ $200
- 13 Active members, 30 on the membership list.

3. Nets

- 2m net is going well and people are having a lot of fun. Averaging 5-9 members. Lisa is stepping down from net control in mid-July. If anyone is interested, they should contact Lisa.

4. Field Day

- Mary has paper goods for field day, but people need to bring food.
- Mary and Dave grabbed a couple of ARRL fliers for the event to fill in local event details.
- Someone has a club sign to put in the lawn for advertisement (Mary?)
- Happening at the Andover Senior Center, 17 School Rd. Andover, CT.
- Someone should order a sandwich platter from Walmart/BJ's
- What about snacks?
- Logging? ARRL might have paper logs someone could print off
- Mary is bringing a generator, but we might not use for our contest designation.

Meeting End: 19:00
